STRATEGIC LITIGATION – WHAT GOES INTO YOUR CASE

Most of the work on a case is done long before you see your counsel standing in the Hon'ble Court. Here is that work, stage by stage.

1 Case Assessment & Legal Opinion	2 Strategic Planning	3 Drafting & Documentation	4 Evidence & Witness Preparation	5 Court Representation & Advocacy	6 Continuous Review & Refinement
▪ Every document, notice, order and prior pleading read in detail ▪ Facts arranged in chronological order ▪ Rulings researched on a licensed legal research database ▪ Strengths, weaknesses and risks identified ▪ Written, reasoned Legal Opinion prepared	▪ Strongest legal grounds selected ▪ Opponent's arguments and applications anticipated ▪ Decision: litigate, negotiate or settle ▪ Sequence of proceedings planned ▪ Realistic time-line and budget worked out	▪ Plaint / petition / application / appeal drafted from the Opinion ▪ Every material fact and ground pleaded ▪ Expected objections identified; written replies prepared ▪ Annexures compiled, indexed, paginated and verified ▪ Filing and all court formalities	▪ Facts to be proved and proof identified ▪ Evidence organised around the case ▪ Examination-in-chief drafted at the preparation stage (trial matters) ▪ Reviewed before trial and updated as the case develops ▪ Cross-examination anticipated	▪ Appearance on every date before the Hon'ble Court ▪ Interim applications and reliefs pursued ▪ Objections anticipated and answered ▪ Disciplined pursuit from first date to final arguments	▪ Every order and every move of the opponent monitored ▪ Strategy revised on new facts or judicial observations ▪ Client consulted on progress and options ▪ Position kept strong till the final order

Stages 1–4 are done BEFORE filing	Each stage is research, reading and drafting time – not visible in the Hon'ble Court	Standard Litigation covers essential preparation only – see Sheet 2

“Cases are won at the drafting table, long before they are argued in the Hon'ble Court.”

Work and sequence of stages depend on the nature of the case and the applicable procedure.
